Benjamin Lim appointed as Business Development Director for Asia by MPL

Managing Partners Limited, the boutique fund management company, has appointed Benjamin Lim as its Business Development Director for Asia.

Benjamin will be based in Singapore and will report to Jeremy Leach, MPL's Managing Director. He will work as part of MPL's sales operation in Asia, which is headquartered in Hong Kong.

He has 15 years' experience in the asset management industry and was previously Chief Marketing Officer for Allianz Global Investors in Asia. Prior to Allianz, Benjamin was Head of Business Development Asia for Aviva Investors Singapore and also held a similar role at Aberdeen Asset Management. He spent a year at Fidelity Investments, where he was primarily responsible for developing fund distribution in Singapore. He started his career in the insurance industry, spending four years with American International Assurance in Singapore. Benjamin holds a Master of Science in Finance degree from Seattle University and is a Fellow of the Life Management Institute.

Jeremy Leach, managing Director at MPL, commented: "Benjamin has the experience and network of contacts to add a great deal of strength to our business development team in Asia, where investors have a strong appetite for the steady, incremental returns that TLPs offer."

MPL's Traded Policies Fund has delivered outstanding returns since its launch in 2004 - a period that includes one of the most turbulent times ever for financial markets. The USD Institutional share class has delivered a total return of 109.97% net of fees from its launch on 1 July 2007 to 15 March 2013, representing an annualised return of 8.94%. In the year to that date the Fund has delivered 8.76%.
